

Team Competitions

Orienteering is primarily an individual sport but there are still a number of competitions where you can run for your club, your region or even your country. The list below gives most of them for 2016 although full details are not available for them all yet, and I may have missed some of course!

Saturday 29 October 2016 Junior Inter Area Relays Culbin Juniors

This, along with the individual competition the day before, is an opportunity for Moravian juniors to run for the north area (BASOC, Gramp, Invoc, MAROC and Moravian) against the south and west of Scotland. Teams are selected based on current performance.

Sunday 6 November 2016 North Clubs' Junior Challenge Keppernach Juniors

Inter-club competition between BASOC, GRAMP, INVOC, MAROC and MORAVIAN. This year INVOC are hosting so not far to travel. This competition is deliberately kept simple and is aimed at juniors who run light green and below.

Sunday 27 November 2016 Scottish Score Cumbernauld All

Score orienteering i.e. where you go to as many controls as possible within a set time. Trophies for individual age classes and also a trophy for the top club so representation is needed across all the classes.

Sunday 12 March 2017 CompassSport Cup qualifier Tentsmuir All

The CompassSport Cup competition happens every year and is the main UK-wide inter-club competition. Clubs qualify for the final through their performance at regional rounds. The final is normally held in October and could be anywhere in the UK. To have any chance of qualifying we need a big turnout as our best 25 runners on the day count.

Monday 17 April JK Relays SE England All

The JK is a 4 day event held over the Easter weekend. There is a sprint race on the Friday, then two individual competitions on Saturday and Sunday followed by the relays on the Monday. Each relay team comprises 3 runners and is age based. The JK is the biggest annual orienteering competition in the UK calendar.

Sunday 17 April Moray & Highland Junior Champs BASOC tbc Juniors

Junior only event aimed at youngsters who are fairly new to orienteering and also the experts. This is an inter club competition between MOR, BASOC and INVOC. There is also normally a Level C event so adults can also run. Date not yet showing on the BASOC website.

Sunday 7 May British Orienteering Relay Champs Lake District All

The British Championships have an individual day on the Saturday and then relays similar to the JK on the Sunday.

Sunday 21 May Scottish Championships Relays SE Scotland All

The Scottish Championships have an individual day on the Saturday and then 3 person relays on the Sunday. There is more ability to mix and match ages as the event uses a handicapping system. Moravian entered an amazing 16 teams in 2016.

June Jamie Stevenson Trophy tbc Juniors

An inter-club competition for junior orienteers from Scottish clubs. Open to all orienteers M/W18 and under.

October Junior Inter Area Relays tbc Juniors

This, along with the individual competition the day before, is an opportunity for Moravian juniors to run for the north area (BASOC, Gramp, Invoc, MAROC and Moravian) against the south and west of Scotland. Teams are selected based on current performance.

Sunday 17 November Scottish Score Moravian All

Score orienteering i.e. where you go to as many controls as possible within a set time. Trophies for individual age classes and also a trophy for the top club so representation is needed across all the classes.

Doc. Date 27.1.16